SAVE GAS, PLAY AT HOME: Social Activities • at BWW

June 1st (first friday in the month) will herald the return of Game Nights. Come one, come all: backgammon, bridge, scrabble, rummy cue and so on. Coffee and light snacks will be provided. 8 p.m. Rec Room.

Resumption of Sunday morning baseball games is also planned and will be announced shortly.

Other plans underway: movie-and-picnic night, art auction, scavenger hunt. Volunteers are needed for any of these to take place and anyone who can give the slightest help should call Sue Frank (837-1559).

VANDALISM REPORT

In the past month, over $150 of expenses have been incurred to repair or replace the following:

- * broken light globe
- * towel dispenser ripped off wall in men's room
- * lock repaired on rec room door
- * molding ripped off in ping pong room
- * screen hardware
- * toilet seat stolen
- * broken gate
- * chaise lounge repaired (not to mention two completely ruined chairs, total cost over $250)
- * broken door to guards room
- * jacuzzi bulb
- * jacuzzi timer broken (again! same problem reported last month)

We continue our policy of reporting these incidences in the hope that those witnessing such events or in anyother way able to prevent them will do so and help to cut down the ensuing expenses.

Apropos of these continuing expenses, the board is continually looking at various means of preventing them: security entrances, alert systems, stricter fines and so forth. These discussions come up at every board meeting and considerable attention has been given to them. Residents are urged to attend the rec board meetings and make their opinions known. Vandalism is expensive and so are the preventive measures. This is your money and your property. TAKE AN INTEREST!
